

Special Properties' Montclair adds Donna Keena

Montclair Patch 04.28.19

MONTCLAIR, NJ – March 28, 2019 – Special Properties Real Estate Services, LLC, an exclusive affiliate of Christie's International Real Estate and the fastest growing real estate brokerage in northern New Jersey, welcomes Donna Keena to its Montclair, NJ, office as a Broker Associate. Her addition is a part of the company's ongoing expansion throughout the northern New Jersey region.

"We welcome Donna to our growing presence in Essex County and across the northern New Jersey region," said Juan Rivera, Regional Vice President for Special Properties. "With her experience and expertise in Montclair, Nutley and the surrounding region, she will be integral in bringing the Special Properties' and Christie's brand to the area."

Keena, with more than 13 years of experience in the industry, specializes in residential and commercial real estate. Throughout her career, Donna has sold over $30 million in real estate and builds customized marketing programs for each client property. From family homes to new developments, Donna has been involved in real estate transactions of all sizes and clients find her local presence essential to their success. She holds the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation, acknowledging completion of enhanced industry education in financial and market analysis with demonstrated experience in commercial real estate.

"I'm am so pleased to be a part of a real estate brokerage that consistently puts the client at the center of their operations. In an active and competitive industry, my constant goal is to provide the highest levels of customer service available," said Keena. "In my career, I have built a network of contractors and professionals to help my clients get the most out of their home. Whether my clients need referrals to lawyers, title companies, mortgage brokers, staging experts, painters, professional organizers, or photographers, I can bring these qualified experts into the real estate process quickly."

Keena joins Special Properties along with her support team, including a dedicated buyer's specialist, administrative support, and marketing experts. Keena is a lifelong resident of Nutley, NJ, where she resides with her family.
