

the power to make a difference, that is huge for me and, in fact, is the value of my life," Glick said.

the board as vice chairman.

Thomas C. Regan
LeClairRyan

The law firm LeClairRyan announced changes to its leadership team, including the promotion of an attorney to lead the Newark office.

leader. Regan, who has been with the firm since 2015, has been leader of the practice group, Practice Group, Liability and Transactions since 2015.

He is succeeding Michael Acee, who has been president of the firm since 2015.

Eugene Preston
NAIOP New Jersey

Eugene Preston, a partner at Dermody Properties in Morristown, was installed as the new president of the New Jersey chapter of NAIOP.

Preston, who previously served as vice president of public affairs, assumes the role from Dave Gibbons, CEO of Elberon Development Group.

Preston will serve a two-year term leading the real estate association's state chapter.

The following were named chapter officers for 2019:

- Gus Milano, Hartz Mountain Industries (VP, public affairs);
- Sam Morreale, Vision Real Estate Partners (VP, special events);
- Matt Schlindwein, Greek Development (VP, education);
- Mark Shearer, Rockefeller Group (VP, membership and communications);
- Richard Burrow, Langan Engineering and Environmental Services (VP, associate affairs); and
- Stacey Weinberg Kierman, Federal Business Centers (treasurer/secretary).

Darlene Bandazian
Christie's Special Properties

Darlene Bandazian of Christie's Special Properties Real Estate Services has been named to the New Jersey Real Estate Commission, representing the northern New Jersey region, the real estate firm announced recently.

Bandazian, the Saddle River-based firm's vice president of regional business development, is a 30-year veteran of the industry in both broker and management roles.

"This is a well-deserved recognition of Darlene's integrity, expertise and experience," Ilija Pavlovic, CEO and president of Christie's Special Properties, said in a prepared statement.