

Real Estate Expert Joins Hoboken Office Of Special Properties

Thirty-Year Industry Veteran Michael Renaud Joins Fastest-Growing Real Estate Brokerage in northern New Jersey and southern New York

By Adam Dvorin, Neighbor | Dec 18, 2018 2:40 pm ET | Updated Dec 18, 2018 2:41 pm ET
Hoboken Patch

Special Properties Real Estate Services, LLC, an exclusive affiliate of Christie's International Real Estate and the fastest-growing real estate brokerage in the region, welcomes Michael Renaud, a seasoned real estate professional with more than three decades of experience, to its Hoboken, NJ office as a Broker Associate. His addition is part of the agency's ongoing growth and expansion in the Hudson County region and throughout northern New Jersey and southern New York State.

"We are pleased to welcome an industry veteran and accomplished regional real estate expert to our growing Hoboken, NJ agent family," said Juan Rivera, Regional Vice President for Special Properties. "Michael will assuredly bring additional depth to our urban-based activity here in Hudson County, and his depth of experience in this market will be a contributing factor as we continue to grow and strengthen our service to this region."

Renaud joins Special Properties with over 30 years of experience in residential and commercial real estate. He brings specialized expertise in new construction development, multi-family investment properties, commercial and industrial sales/leasing, as well as his residential real estate capabilities. His skill set also includes an array of valuable experience including land acquisition, site approvals, financing, property management, negotiating and the marketing of both residential and commercial properties. He has completed well over one billion dollars in real estate transactions during his career. In addition to his deep knowledge of Hoboken and the surrounding region, he also brings experience within Bergen County as well.

"After more than three decades in the real estate business, I still crave new experiences and new challenges. With my affiliation with Special Properties, I am energized by their innovative and modern perspective on the industry, and its commitment to customer service," said Renaud.

Renaud has been recognized for his real estate expertise and success with industry recognitions, including a variety of performance awards and being a member of the million dollar sales club, at his previous brokerages, throughout the last 25 years.